

SWEET SOUL MUSIC

THE SOLUTION reveal their second time-capsule.

„Communicate!“, The Solution’s first record, was a mind-blowing trip in into the flourishing decades of Motown and Detroit, but with „Will Not Be Televised“ Scott Morgan and Nicke Andersson are ready to travel back in time once more. Both of them seem to have taken their time for that – Andersson has just announced the split of his main band The Hellacopters and Morgan despite of playing in several other bands just found his time-out for that. So there is enough room to play that magnificent interpretation of soul with those fabulous background-vocals, that euphoric sounding saxophone-section and that authentic timbre. Sweden has proved its sense of quality music: The record entered at #6 in their billboard-charts. So Germany, now it is up to you! Show some style.
